HE IS INDICTED FOR PERJURY.

CHARGES AGAINST THE EX-PRESIDENT OF THE MADISON SQUARE BANK.

Bank, surrendered himself in the District-y's office yesterday, and now every person Attorney's office yesterday, and how every person indicted for compilcity in wrecking the bank has been put under bail to appear for trial. Mr. Cryder called on Mr. Nicoli's secretary, Henry W. Unger, at 12:30 o'clock, accompanied by his cousin and Congressman Franklin Bartlett, and his odsman, William A. Street, broker, at No. 23 William-st. It was announced that Mr. Cryar had been indicted for perjury.

Assistant District-Attorney Vernon M. Davis went th the three before Judge Cowing, in Part I of with the three before Judge Cowing. In Part I of General Sessions, and suggested that ball be fixed at $7,500. Mr. Bartlett protested that this sum was too large, and Judge Cowing fixed $5,000 as the figure. The directors of the bank, who were inted merely for misdemennor, had to give bail in 20 each. President Blaut, who was indicted for 25,000 bail. Mr. Cryder, therefore, was treated

o. 44 West Nineteenth-st., which is worth Mr. Cryder would say to reporters only that had arrived here from Washington on Saturday. he indictment declares that Mr. Cryder, on June of the bank's condition. The statement

CHANGES IN FIFTH AVENUE.

BUSINESS RAPIDLY ENCROACHING ON THE

ALMOST DECIDED ON A SITE

nber of houses in Fifth-ave, that are being altered for business purposes is rapidly increas-Below Forty-second-st. there is hardly for sale or to lease that does not have a in the notice that the property will be alered for business purposes. Yesterday alterations were begun on the house at Fifth-ave. and Thirty-ninth-st., opposite the Union League Club, known "Tweed house." William M. Tweed is suped by many to have escaped from this house in ther, 1875, but he really escaped from the in upper Madison-ave. The Fifth-ave, house stories. The first floor will be for business pur ses and the rest will be for bachelor apartments. owner of the property is Horace A. Hutchins. The extensive improvements to the building will at a cost of $32,000, and the architect, Charles H. Graels, says that it will be one of the ther new building that will soon be put up in will be an apartment house at Fifty-It will front 125 feet in the street and 75 in the avenue. The lot has been leased by Louisa M. Gerry to a syndicate for ninety-estate market was not active yesterday ales were recorded. The total amount of one at the exchanges amounted to $30,400.

THE MARKETS.

TOTAL RECEIPTS TO-DAY. New-York, December 4, 1893

27,304 Do brandy, pkgs

GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

Mixed rve

CORNMEAL—The market is already. Sales, 300 bills and 1,000 sacks. Yellow Western $2.00 set 75 binnay, when, $2.75. Sagamore $2.75 Southern white, bars, $1 borel 2, 5 Bars MEAL—Quet. Quotations: Fine write, $1.60 set 10.5; her yellow, $98.031; correct $8.400. FLED—Market steady. Quotations of Vestern carlots, $0.85, 75c, wellow, $98.03, 75.800, $100-th, soussier, sharps, $5.000, $1.00 ty feed steady; sales, $2.000 lags at $7.405.50c, according to quality and quantity, rye peel, $5.000 to miny clop. $5c; cottonseed

Oate

Vindeor A. 3 15-1624 a tidrew'd A. 3 13-1624 a tidrew'd A. 3 15-1624 a tidrew' 3 13-16-74 3 11-16 3 4 3 11-16 3 4 3 13-16 3 9 16 8 32, 3 9 16 8 32, 3 9 23 11-16

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

| The control of the

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Cows. Calves. Sneep and Lambs. Swins.
186 2.288 32.59
Beeres. Cows. Caves. Sheep. Swins.
186 4.002 478 11.692 12.493
1.784 1.8 1.641 17.935 1,619 58 56 2,969 17,830 and scat 291 113 2,102 at week 11,157 243 3,168 30,717 25,307

QUOTATIONS OF BEEVES. .#4 95#$5 30 4 80# 1 95 4 00# 4 75 4 20# 4 37 2 2 50# 4 50 1 15# 3 00 4 70# 4 00# 5 30 day were 184 cars,

WEEKLY SHIPMENTS.

OTHER MARKETS-BY TELEGRAPH.

THE STATE OF TRADE.

Boston, Dec. 4 .- Markets quiet.